Sonya Roemer Critically Injured by Mystery Blast

A mysterious blast critically injured the wfie of Irving Roemer, president of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District Board, Saturday at their garage adjoining their home at 3783 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette.

In addition to third degree burns over 80 per cent of her body, Sonya Roemer, 48, suffered a still unexplained head injury.

FIRE INVESTIGATORS and sheriff's officers were still unable to question Mrs. Roemer due to the extent of her injuries. Inspector Norman Wilson of the Walnut Creek Sub Station expected doctors' permission to speak with Mrs. Roemer sometime today.

Mrs. Roemer who, according to onlookers, "was burned from head to foot," was dragged from the burning garage by H. J. Dutton, 4045 Happy Valley Road and Pierce Milton, 4037 Happy Valley Road, two neighbors, on their way home to lunch when the fire broke out. They entered the garage through a rear door and pulled her out.

Irving Roemer told sheriff's officers that he and his wife were going out toward the garage and that he went back to the house to answer the phone. As he reached the porch he heard a loud sound and saw the garage burning.

HE TRIED to enter the garage but was forced back by the intense heat. He was burned on the face and hands.

Roemer then tried to cut a path in the flames with the stream from a garden hose to reach his wife. In the meantime Dutton and Milton pulled her out through the back entrance.

Mrs. Roemer was rushed to Herrick Hosiptal where she was given large quantities of blood plasma.

DOCTORS and hospital officials Wednesday described Mrs. Roemer's condition as "satisfactory, as well as can be expected."

Monday fire investigators inspected the ruins of the garage which served as a workshop and found the usual few cans of paint and other items which are common to any garage, but were unable to pin-point the exact cause of the fire.

Fire Chief S. C. Peakes of the Lafayette Fire Department stated that the cause of the fire was not due to a smoldering fire which flared up instantly. Pacific Gas and Electric experts; D. E. Weir of the National Board of Fire Underwriters; Fire Marshal Bob Winkel; Detective Lee Gallamore, assisted Wilson with the inspection of the garage.

PURPOSE of the search was to determine the cause of the blast and to discover what caused the injury on the right rear portion of Mrs .Roemer's head.

The actual extent of head injuries that Mrs. Roemer suffered is not known. X-Rays were recommended early in the week but were not able to be taken because of the burns.

Wilson said that Mrs. Roemer was now undergoing a serious physical reaction and that doctors had told him that the healing process was now under way. Visual examination of the patient by doctors has not revealed a skull fracture.

MRS. ROEMER, socially prominent matron of the area, is a board member of the National Cancer Society of Contra Costa County and was active in fund raising campaigns. Her husband in addition to his position with the CCCSD is a nationally known patent attorney with offices in San Francisco.

The Roemers have two children, Tim, 5, and Tom, 22, who is serving with the Navy in the Pacific.

Losses caused by the fire included a late model car, total damage to the building, scorching of the Roemer house, burning down of a main telephone company line. Telephone service was restored shortly atfer 5 p.m. by telephone company workers.

Firemen fought the blaze from 1:46 p.m. until 3:53 p.m. Ten men and five pieces of equipment were used.

Mutnick Files; Resigns Improver Group Positions

Harold E. Mutnick, Lafayette attorney, filed his nomination papers Monday as a candidate for supervisor from the Second District.

The followng day he announced his resignation as vice-president and director of the Lafayette Improvement Association, chairman of the association's planning committee and association representative on the board of the Contra Costa Planning League.

IN A LETTER to President Campbell MacPhail of the Lafayette Improvement Association, Mutnick stated:

"Since I am now an active candidate for the office of supervisor from this district, and since I feel that the Lafayette Improvement Association should not, even by indirection or faint impression, become involved in a political contest, I tender, at this time, my resignation as vice-president and member of the Board of Directors of the Lafayette Improvement Association.

"My resignation is intended to cover, as well, my chairmanship of the planning committee and, as such, spokesman for the association on the Lafayette master plan, as well as my directorship, as LIA representative, on the Contra Costa County Planning League.

"I TAKE THIS action after somber thought and with great reluctance, appreciating that the proposed Lafayette master plan, the association's major community project of the year, remains, as yet, unfulfilled.

"I feel, however, that my resignation will divorce, in the public's mind, the association from my political candidacy, and, at the same time, will give the officers, the directors and the members of the Lafayette Improvement Association, as individual citizens, compelte freedom of choice in the ensuing supervisor's race.

"This action will also permit me to speak out freely on those planning and zoning matters where I have differed with the action of the majority of the Board of Directors."

Work of Kraintz' Office Described To Civic Affairs

Problems and activities of his office were discussed by Rudy Kraintz, county building inspector, at the meeting of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee Monday night.

Kraintz addressed about 30 persons in the multi-purpose room of the Glorietta School. With him was Warren Lamb, his assistant, who also participated in the discussion.

The meeting was conducted by William Thurston, Civic Affairs chairman.

A prepared list of questions had been submitted to Kraintz in advance of the meeting, and Kraintz read the answers he had prepared. In addition, a question-and-answer period followed this portion of the program.

GIST OF SOME of the prepared questions and replies were:

Question — Does the county building inspection office have control over bulldozing?

Answer — "Our ordinance requires an engineer's report. Primarily we're concerned with the stability of the structure."

Q — What about contour maps?

A — "They're not required by ordinance. With an 8-month building season and some 30,000 building permits, we can hardly be expected to make a site investigation for every permit.

"HOWEVER, WE HAD the contractors in for a conference recently, to see if we could have a better arrangement regarding contours."

Q — What about the size and looks of a house?

A — "We are concerned with size. But we haven't too much to do with aethetics."

Q — Is your office connected with Planning Commission rulings on setbacks and sideyards?

A — "The Planning Commission makes these rules."

Q — Is an owner allowed to do any type of work on his house?

A — "Yes — but if it's something with which he's not familiar, he's advised to get expert help."

Q — DO YOU WITHHOLD building permits on land known to be sliding?

A — "If we have any indication of sliding, we require a compaction test. How easy it is to get an opinion was shown by an instance where one geologist said there was no slide condition, and another geologist said there was a slide condition. We're having conferences now with the Contractors Association to see if some better system can be worked out. This is in process now."

Q — What about flooding in valley areas?

A — "I think possibly some flood problems could be solved by having channels widened and deepened. This is an engineering question and one of costs — primarily, costs."

KRAINTZ STATED that his office is "responsible for the interior of the house — to see that everything is O.K. regarding fixtures, connections, etc."

"It's up to you, when you buy property, to make sure the surroundings are O.K.," he added.

Kraintz said his department was formed in 1947. "We started from scratch," he stated. "We now have a better idea of what's wanted."

Orinda Chamber Considers Forming Lighting District

Formation of a Lighting District in the business sections of Orinda at the Crossroads and in the Village was discussed at the Tuesday noon meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at the Willows.

Speaking to the chamber, Ray Benton, lighting engineer for the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, explained each street light (approximately 600 watts incandescent) would cost $78 monthly to a private organization but that the governmental rate to a Lighting District would be $600 yearly for each light.

BENTON further explained unless a Lighting District is approved by the Board of Supervisors and a tax rate set, a five year advance payment would be needed before lights could be installed by the company. PG&E would pay for the initial tying in with existing power facilities and the installation of lighting fixtures.

Prior to the chamber meet Paul Vashell, John Black, who made arrangements for Benton to speak before the chamber, and Benton toured Orinda to estimate how many lights would be needed. They reported approximately 8-10 would suffice in the business areas.

THE CHAMBER was informed that it may sponsor a petition to the Board of Supervisors asking for the formation of a Lighting District in Orinda. Benton stated the tax rate was limited to 20 cents in some areas and the maximum rate was 55 cents per hundred dollars of assessed valuation.

Chamber members agreed to conduct a public hearing to further discuss the Lighting District with other civic groups of Orinda. The possibility of forming a district including residential areas would also be considered at the open meeting.

Parking District Changes Opposed By Orinda C of C

Proposed changes in the Orinda Parking District were strongly opposed at the Tuesday meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at the Willows Tuesday.

Basil Andrews, county traffic engineer and Tom Shreve, assistant traffic engineer, reported to the chamber that the two hour parking imit area on the north side of Bryant Way was not being adequately used. Half of the parking stalls could be reverted to unlimited parking so that the stalls would be in use 80 per cent of the time rather than the present 30 to 35 per cent.

MEMBERS OF the chamber pointed out business is greatly aided by having parking facilities available in the business areas. They further stated during peak hours there is never enough parking in downtown Orinda.

The chamber agreed to give the parking situation closer study and a report on the study would be forwarded to the County Public Works Office.

Paul Vashell made a motion that the Orinda Parking District should remain just as it is now. Clarence Betz, secretary, seconded the motion. The motion carried.

PRESIDENT Ned DeLaveaga announced at a short meeting of the directors after the general meeting was adjourned that Betz had been asked by the Orinda Association to serve on the Incorporation Committee, Paul Pollaczek, chairman.

Laura Mallory, Ernie Poll and John Ogden were selected by the chamber to work with the civic affairs committee of the Orinda Association. Further consideration will be given by both the chamber and the association on a member of the board of directors representing the business area.

Bill Zion in a letter to the chamber offered to speak on the current tax problem in Contra Costa County if the chamber so desired.

DeLAVEAGA praised the work of part time help from St. Mary's College and recommended to members of the chamber that the students be considered for part time jobs in the area.

Dane Christensen of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company was introduced to the members as the official representative of the company to the Orinda Chamber.

THE BOARD of directors moved that space in the Orinda Bus shelter would be reserved for newspaper display racks and that other types of literature, advertising and the like would not be permitted.

The decision was made in response to a letter claiming free informative pamphlets would be placed and maintained in the Orinda Bus Shelter. The motion was made by Merle Brown and seconded by Tom Horton.

Commission Okay for PIE Protested by Association

Controversy over administrative office district rezoning of the Pine Grove was headed for the County Board of Supervisors this week.

Unanimous approval by the County Planning Commission Tuesday night of Pacific Intermountain Express Company's rezoning application for its 10.7-acre parcel at the Pine Grove touched off a new series of explosive reactions.

The commission's recommendation, which would allow PIE to erect a $750,000 headquarters office building, met with sharply varied responses, all equally definite.

THE ORINDA ASSOCIATION, through President Mel Arighi, described the commission action as "a travesty on the democratic form of government" and announced it will "carry this fight on to the Board of Supervisors."

The Fact Finders hailed the commission action as a "triumph for the real majority of Orinda residents."

In a letter to the Planning Commission dated Wednesday, Arighi asked that commissioners, and "specifically that Mr. Thomas Heaton, our paid county planning consultant," appear before the association board meeting at 7:30 next Monday night at Orinda School "and justify the reversal of his and the Planning Commission's previously recorded position that commercial zoning is incompatible with the church, lodge, library and schools contiguous thereto."

HEATON YESTERDAY said he would inform the planning commissioners during the day of the association request. Pointing out that the commission will hold a regular full meeting next Tuesday night and a Board of Adjustment meeting next Wednesday night, he said, "If the association directors want to discuss the matter, they can come to the commission at its regular meeting Tuesday night."

As to whether he himself would appear at the association board meeting, Heaton said that would be "up to the commission."

He denied that his report and the commission's action Tuesday night were a "reversal." "This is not commercial zoning," he said. "It's administrative office district zoning. The reasons for the recommendation were all set forth in my statement to the commission Tuesday night."

AS FOR THE recent association-conducted poll, in which a 3298-1460 vote against rezoning was tallied, and last June's poll by PIE, in which 76 per cent approval of rezoning was reported, Heaton stated:

"The planning staff report was not based on polls. It was made from a planning viewpoint."

Motion that the planning staff "prepare findings recommending that this property be rezoned to administrative office district" was made by Commissioner George W. Honegger, seconded by Commissioner Robert S. Elliott.

THE PLANNING STAFF will now prepare a map and a resolutoin, both of which, after approval by the commission, will go to the supervisors for a hearing, Heaton explained yesterday.

COMMISSION ACTION Tuesday night was based on the planning staff's recommendations, which were made part of the motion and which were as follows, stated by Heaton:

"The property is large enough to provide for a suitable regional ofifce with room for expansion. The area surrounding the property is compatible with this use, and this use is compatible with other uses in the neighborhood.

"The property is located adjacent to a highly traveled 6-lane freeway on one side, adjacent to a proposed 4-lane freeway on the other side, a public school on another side, and non-residential uses on the other parts of the boundary.

"Site plans have been shown which may hereafter be approved under ordinance 1004, which meet all the tests of the administrative office district.

"WHILE THE PROPOSED general plan did not provide for an administrative office district in this precise location, it did propose such a district in the vicinity; and while the general plan was not adopted, it would not be in conflict with that plan, even were it adopted, to provide an administrative ofifce district on the east corner of the intersection rather than the west corner.

"This was, in fact, contemplated at the time the general plan was being prepared."

C. E. JOHNSON, executive vice president of PIE, yesterday gave his only comment on the situation as follows:

"It seems to me that the planning staff and the commission stated rather clearly at the Tuesday night meeting their reasons for approving the rezoning request."

Johnson and John C. Houlihan, PIE attorney, were present at the Tuesday night session of the Planning Commission, as were President Arighi of the Orinda Association, Gladys Schwatka, association attorney, and Mitchell Farrar, a member of the association's planning committee.

There was no discussion from the floor, since the hearing had been closed February 28.

SHORTLY AFTER the commission vote, Arighi issued the following statement:

"It is difficult to understand how a commission supposedly appointed to operate under the principles of democratic rule could so flagrantly ignore the expressed will of a substantial majority of the people of Orinda in the matter of rezoning of the Pine Grove.

"The people early last month voted in excess of 2 to 1 against rezoning of the Pine Grove, but this apparently meant nothing when a large corporation like PIE decided to force their way into our community.

"Is our country so overrun with politics that the will of the people means nothing?

"THE ORINDA ASSOCIATION intends to carry this fight on to the Board of Supervisors, who, we hope, can realize the mistake that the Planning Commission has made.

"The people of Orinda have overwhelmingly made their wishes known, and we hope that politics are not so rampant as to ignore democratic principles."

HEATON and H. Russell Griffith, principal county planner, stated yesterday that the latest action regarding the Pine Grove was not a reversal of the county's action two years ago in denying application of East Bay Municipal Utility District, the then owner of the land, for rezoning of the Pine Grove from residential-agricultural to retail business.

"That dispute was in connection with the matter of the Planned Neighborhood Business District, which was later established along the west side of Orinda Highway," Griffith said.

BOTH THE Orinda Association's Homeowners Committee, which has spearheaded the drive to "keep Orinda residential," and the Fact Finders executive committee held special meetings Wednesday night.

Chairman William Penn Mott Jr., of the Homeowners Committee declared that "the people of Orinda will fight pressure planning for special interest," and he added that C. E. Johnson, PIE executive vice-president, "has on numerous occasions told the people that PIE wanted to be a good neighbor and if the people did not want them, they would not move to Orinda."

Following the Fact Finders' session, Joseph R. Longacre, a member of that group's executive committee stated:

"This action by the Planning Commission is vindication of the Fact Finders' stand. "The secret poll taken some time ago by the PIE showed better than 75 per cent of Orinda people voted in favor of approval of the application. The Orinda Chamber of Commerce also voted 10 to 1 in favor of PIE. Attempting to combat this, the minority group now in control of the Orinda Association took a "partisan poll" on the subject, and claimed to come up with a vote against the switch."

"The Fact Finders will have to continue their drive to show the true wishes of the people of Orinda," Longacre continued. "We are convinced that the great majority in the entire county will agree with the Fact Finders' stand in favor of limited and well-planned commercial activity in non-residential areas like this Pine Grove case, to help bear the tax load."

IN A LETTER to the Board of Supervisors, dated Wednesday and marked to the attention of Chairman H. L. Cummings, Arighi asked that the board instruct the chairman or secretary of the Planning Commission "to appear at the public hearing on this matter before the Board of Supervisors to explain to the board" the reasons for the commission action.

Arighi described this action as "in direct opposition to the wishes of the people."

Many Meat Shops Resume Old Hours

With the majority of the independent meat markets in Central Contra Costa County already having resumed that schedule, a meeting of retail meat shop owners is being called for 7:30 p.m. Monday at Stan's Brick House, Walnut Creek, to discuss making the 9 a.m.-to-6 p.m. hours more effective.

This was announced yesterday by Carl Nunn, president of the Retail Meat Dealers of Central Contra Costa County.

Nunn said that all chain stores will be represented at this meeting, and that all retail meat market owners are being invited — those who already are signed up for the 9-to-6 schedule and those who are not.

SOME 30 MEMBERS of the association met at Stan's last Monday night and unanimously voted to abandon night and Sunday opening of meat shops which had been put into effect on a permissive basis two months ago.

Resumption of the 9-to-6 schedules and elimination of Sunday and holiday openings went into effect Tuesday for the majority of independents.

DEALERS POINTED out that the public has become so accustomed to the old schedules that night and Sunday sales did not pay for the costs.

With workers receiving double pay for Sunday work, and with holiday work to be paid at a triple-time rate, markets could not afford the extra payments involved, it was stated.

The experiment in over-hours opening had been put into effect on a permissive basis under a new one-year contract with Butchers Union Local 532.

Rotary Hears Rev. Blossom Speak

Rev. Chauncey E. Blossom addressed the Orinda RRotary at the regular meeting of the organization Wednesday noon at the Willows.

Mr. Blossom spoke on the topic "What the Church Can Do for World Peace." He pointed out that until all the peoples of the world look upon each other as being equal there can not be true world peace.

Program chairman for the day was Dan Popovich.

The purpose of the campaign is to raise sufficient funds to erect a public library building on community center property. The exact amount has not as yet been released but needs are now being studied by Brown and his committees.

Land for the building was donated by the Orinda Association with the stipulation that construction would begin within two years of the grant. Portion of that time has already elapsed.

Eating Houses Average 3 Violations -- Health Dept.

Dr. H. L. Blum, county health officer, this week in a report told of unsanitary conditions in many eating establishments, and of his department's efforts to correct them. His report is in part, as follows:

"The Sanitation Division of the County Health Department has recently completed the yearly inspection of the food handling establishments in the county area and all the incorporated cities with the exception of Richmond.

"There are an estimated 1400 establishments concerned with the serving, selling or manufacturing food for human consumption in the area under the County Health Department supervision. Of these it was possible to inspect only 1200 establishments due to shortage of personnel.

"This means that an estimated 200 establishments will have no inspections whatsoever to determine compliance with the minimum health and sanitary requirements of the state food laws.

"The inspections that were made required 300 repeat visits to insure that corrections were obtained in such important health items as washing and sanitizing of dishes and glasses as well as sanitary preparation, and serving of food.

"IN SUMMARY: Number of places inspected, 1200; number of repeat visits to secure corrections, 300; average number of violations per establishment, 3; major types of deficiencies: inadequate dishwashing or sanitization, 260.

"To help prevent the recurrence of food poisoning outbreaks and the serving of food in unsanitary surroundings, and to assist the operators of food establishments to maintain sanitary premises throughout the year, it is essential that the food handling places of Contra Costa County be inspected by the Sanitation Division at more frequent intervals than on the present annual basis.

"Because of the wide variety of sanitation problems existing throughout the county, and the lack of personnel, it is impossible to obtain santisfactory food establishment sanitation.

"Actual practice has shown that it is necessary to inspect food establishments at least every two months.

"This is because of the rapid deterioration of equipment, and large turnover in personnel and ownership.

"Closely correlated in a good food program should be a training course for restaurant management and personnel, and a yearly chest x-ray to detect tuberculosis.

"FOR THREE years the Health Department has requested additional personnel to carry out reasonable food control in the county.

"A proposed ordinance is presently being considered by the Board of Supervisors which would make it possible to accomplish the basic aims of having sanitary establishments and properly trained personnel to operate them."

"POINT OF NO RETURN," spring production of the Dramateurs, will be presented tonight, tomorrow night, next Friday School Little Theater. Rehearsing the dinner party scene in night and on Saturday night, March 31, at the Berkeley High the last act are, left to right, James Harris, Terry Schralla of Orinda, Tommy Lou Nather of Walnut Creek and Bruce Winkworth of Orinda.

"4. Recognition of the fact that the residents of the district need a greater faith in the integrity of county government and the knowledge that they have a representative with whom they can personally discuss their problems and aspirations.

"5. The pressing need for a comprehensive inventory of county requirements, to the end that the most efficient use will be made of federal funds which may be allocated for roads and public schools."

Wallace's supporters state that his only ambition is to serve the district, that he has no business connections inside or outside the county and that he will devote full time to his duties.

Acalanes students this week sold "stock" at 50 cents a share to enable fellow Lafayette students to "buy a share in America's future."

According to Smed Ambler, student body president of the Acalanes Junior Statesmen Chapter, proceeds from the sale of the "stock" will help pay the fare expenses involved in bringing foreign exchange students to Acalanes High next year.

Three foreign European students, David Carter of England, Guido Grazuissi of Italy and Birgetta Borrie of Sweden, are currently enrolled at Acalanes. Three European students also attended Acalanes last year, while four Acalanes students toured the Continent during the summer.

The exchange program is carried on through the auspices of the American Field Service.

Share certificates for the "share the fare" stock sold this week on the Acalanes campus were designed by British exchange student David Carter.

Roman Catholic Church Tells of Holy Week Changes

In what has been said to be the most far reaching liturgical reform of our times by church scholars, the Roman Catholic Church has completed a custom changing operation for the Easter Week services.

Times of the services have been changed and rites revised to give the faithful more participation in the rituals observed during Holy Week. The modifications were decreed by the congregation of Sacred Rites for Roman Catholic Churches throughout the world. They were announced by Pope Pius XII.

Major changes are:

PALM SUNDAY — The laity will join the clergy in the annual procession, preferably outside the church. All will carry palms and sing hymns in honor of Christ.

HOLY THURSDAY—There will be a Mass in each parish sometime between 5 and 8 p.m. to commemorate the Last Supper. Priests will gather with the bishop in each cathedral during the morning to bless the Holy Oils to be used in administration of the Sacraments and to commemorate the institution of the priesthood.

GOOD FRIDAY—The liturgical rite will take place sometime between 3 and 6 p.m., with greater congregational participation than before. All clergy and laity may receive Holy Communion for the first time in several centuries.

HOLY SATURDAY — Restored as a day of retreat, with no services in the parishes until night.

EASTER VIGIL—Restored to a time around midnight. Opens with church in darkness and kindling of a new fire to light a large candle, the symbol of Christ. Water is consecrated for baptism and adult converts will be baptized. All of the faithful will renew their baptismal vows. The first Easter Mass will follow at midnight.

Winners of Hawaiian Trip Told, Circus Week Starts

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colbourn, 1062 Laurel Drive, Lafayette, are the winners of the Hawaii trip offered by Kings Food Center stores during the stores' Second Anniversary Celebration.

The trip for two will include flight both ways by Pan American Airways; a week stay at the Reef Hotel on Waikiki Beach and tours of Oahu and Mount Tantalus and a Pearl Harbor cruise.

Also included in the trip are a Luau, other entertainment, and expenses paid for meals and souvenir shopping.

MRS. COLBOURN at first could not believe that she had won the trip.

"I've never won anything before in my life and I thought it was just a joke. There's nothing like having a good grocery store to take care of its customers," stated Mrs. Colbourn.

The prize was won on the Colbourns' wedding anniversary.

Plans as to when the winning couple will take their trip to the Islands are still undecided but they hope to leave some time in June.

Colbourn is Sales Manager of Delta Equipment Company of Oakland.

Approximately 15,000 residents of the area participated in the nothing to purchase contest.

CIRCUS DAYS are now under way at all three Kings Stores: Kings Pleasant Hill, Kings Lafayette and Black's Market, Orinda.

Three all-expense trips to Los Angeles and Disneyland for families of four will be given away by the owners of Kings. (Each trip for one family of four).

Drawing will be Saturday. Nothing to buy, just sign up to win, said Norm Ironside, co-owner of Kings.

Circus week is the concluding week in the month long second anniversary celebration of the firm.

"We thank all of the customers of our stores that have helped make us the fastest growing store in the area. We hope that through our celebration we have won many new friends and we will continue to offer the lowest possible prices in all of our departments.

Lions to Conduct Regional Speech Contest Tuesday

The Regional Student Speakers Contest conducted by Lions Clubs will be held at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday at El Nido, Lafayette, with the Lafayette Lions Club acting as host.

Competing will be Robert Rupley of Orinda, a student at Acalanes High School, and Suzanne Lyon of Centerville High School. Their subject will be "Youth Problems of Tomorrow."

Rupley, sponsored by the Orinda Lions Club, will represent the Central Contra Costa County zone. He won zone honors last week against Ann Sonntag of Lafayette, Dick Brungard of Walnut Creek, Jo Ann Weston of Pleasant Hill and Cathe Sullivan of Danville. This zone contest was held at Orinda Willows.

Suzanne Lyon, sponsored by the Castro Valley Lions Club, will represent the Southern Alameda County zone, in which she won the zone contest.

THE CENTRAL CONTRA Costa County and Southern Alameda County zones constitute Golden Gate Region 3 of the Lions.

Winner of the regional contest will compete in the Coastal Northern California area contest at Hoberg's in Lake County May 30-June 2. The area winner will later compete in the California-Nevada district finals in Nevada.

The district winner will receive a $1500 scholarship.

The gathering, which will also be a "Ladies Night," with wives of Lion members as special guests, will be conducted by Tom Jacobsen, Lafayette Lions president.

TROUT LOST

December floods damaged four major hatcheries operated by the California Department of Fish and Game and more than a million trout may be lost.

Schools to Lose Over $1 Million In State Funds

School districts in Contra Costa County will lose well over $1 million in state funds during this fiscal year because of the recent 35 per cent increase in assessed valuation, according to Harold DeFraga, assistant county superintendent.

DeFraga estimated that the loss in basic apportionment alone will be $1,214,173 in addition to losses in funds for transportation and exceptional growth in enrollment.

A third loss, in effect, will be an increase in the amount of repayment on state loans for school building, also dependent on the assessed valuation of a school district.

"The state apportions funds to the local school districts according to a complicated formula based on local ability to support public education, or assessed valuation, and attendance. In general, the state apportionment per pupil declines as assessed valuation per pupil increases," he said.

Estimated losses for local districts include: Alamo, $9824; Canyon, $303; Lafayette $43,877; Moraga, $1216; Mt. Diablo Unified, $305,036; Orinda, $37,691; Walnut Creek, $49,236.

REAR-VIEW MIRROR

Flip off the non-glare feature of the rear-view mirror when putting the car away in the garage at night so that the mirror is in proper focus for daytime driving. Backing out of the garage in the morning requires full attention and should be done without having to adjust the mirror in the process.

Moraga Trees Now In Danger, Says Newsletter

The Moraga redwoods area near Canyon, is threatened by a proposed highway between Oakland and the outlying suburbs of Contra Costa County, according to the "Nature Conservation News."

This area includes the valley of San Leandro Creek. One side of the valley has a variety of interesting vegetation types, including the rare knobcone pine which occurs in only about two dozen small and widely scattered stands.

The knobcone pine is located along the crest of the ridge on an exposure of tilted shale beds. Associated with it are a number of flowering native shrubs—chaparral pea, chinquapin, bush poppy, huckleberry, manzaneta, ceaothus, and toyon.

Live-oak interspersed with madrone occurs lower on the slope, with laurel in the moister situations. The other side of the valley is clothed with a second-growth redwood forest a hundred years old.

The area, along with the adjacent Redwood Regional Park, constitutes a virtual wilderness abounding in wildlife despite the fact that it is adjacent to Oakland. A portion is set aside in public ownership as watershed land.

Fortunately, another route is available for the proposed highway and it apparently has engineering advantages over the route down the valley of San Leandro Creek.

Hearings on the highway proposal are to be held before July in Contra Costa County.

William Drake, Canyon, is heading up Nature Conservancy efforts in behalf of the area.

Women Call For Used Articles

Collection of used but usable clothing and household furnishings for the rummage sale to be held by the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Orinda, on May 30 and 31, is getting under way this week with the announcement by Mrs. A. D. Henry, president, of collection stations to which contributions may be taken.

Homes which have been offered as storage depots are: Sleepy Hollow, Mrs. John Den Dulk, 133 Sleepy Hollow Lane; Glorietta, Mrs. A. D. Thurston, 40 Mariposa Lane; Miner Road, Mrs. Bruce Anderson, 566 Miner Road; and Lafayette, Mrs. Harold Hollister, 665 Los Palos Drive.

After Easter, rummage may be brought to the church on Sunday and left in the bins which will be provided near the entrances.

Contributors are asked to bring the rummage in a transportable condition, packed in containers or tied in bundles, as there will be no receptacles available at the collection places, and the rummage will not be sorted prior to the sale.

If possible, it should be protected from the weather by newspapers or butcher paper.

The sale will be in Oakland at the St. George Hall, 2436 Grove Street.

Members and friends of St. Stephen's are urged to collect as much rummage as possible for the sale, the proceeds of which will be used to make final payments on the church organ.

Flu Virus Still Traveling Central Contra Costa

"The influenza - like illnesses which are present in the Bay Area have been decreasing in some sections of the county, while continuing in others," Dr. Beryl Graham, assistant health officer, said today.

For a two-week period ending March 9 school absences were highest in Eastern Contra Costa County.

There are two types of illness commonly called "flu," but not actually caused by an influenza virus, he said. One produces gastrointestinal symptoms and occurs at regular intervals among many people. This disease is probably caused by an unidentified virus.

THE SECOND causes respiratory symptoms. Recent studies by the State Health Department have shown the presence in this area of a virus which frequently causes these respiratory symptoms.

"Influenza itself comes on suddenly with fever, weakness and generalized aching. There are three types of influenza viruses, but the only identified one in this area at present is the type A prime virus.

This virus does not usually cause severe illness but may result in weakness and fatigue for several weeks after initial recovery.

THERE ARE many strains of each type of influenza virus. They tend to change as the disease moves from one commnuity to another. Vaccines which are produced protect only against those strains used in their production.

"However, due to the frequent variations in strains, it is impossibles to prepare in advance a vaccine which will protect against the virus which may appear next in a community. The routine use of vaccine is, therefore, not recommended, Graham concluded.

County Taxpayers Criticize Special District Directors

A protest against "Too Much Government" was voiced by the County Taxpayers Association recently in its official newsletter, which concluded with a call for enforcement of election laws against directors of special districts, "some of whom disregard the law and perpetuate themselves in office."

A tangled mess of county government, or multiplicity of governments in the form of city, school districts and special purpose district, was scored by "The Spotlight," signed by Association President Bruce Howard.

THE MESSAGE said in part:

"There are one county, 11 city, and 35 school district autonomous governments in Contra Costa County.

"But, in addition, there are 102 special purpose districts carrying on separate, and often overlapping programs.

"To indicate the complexity of this problem there are the following types of districts: 2 cemetery, 2 community services, 6 fire, 16 county fire protection, 1 flood control, 3 hospital, 19 lighting, 2 mosquito abatement, 3 park, recreation and parkway, 10 sanitary, 1 sanitation, 1 sewer, 6 sewer maintenance, 5 county service area, 2 soil conservation, 2 storm drain maintenance, 1 storm drainage, 2 utility, 1 vehicle parking, 15 water, 1 waterworks, and 1 municipal utility.

"Approximately 10-15 new districts are being established each year.

"With this much government it is clearly impossible for the citizen to make his wishes known, and instead of democratic representation we have chaos. A great deal of this confusion can only be solved through state legislation, but among those actions which could be taken on a local level are:

"Consideration by the citizens and the commissioners of adjoining and like districts of the possibility of consolidation.

"Increased guidance and consultation from the county departments."

Bolenders Tell Of Jayne Kirks Wedding Plans

Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Bolender, Bear Creek Road, Orinda, announced the engagement of their niece, Jayne Kirk, to Stewart Walker of San Francisco.

The betrothal was told at a small family gathering during the Christmas holidays. A recent announcement was made by the traditional candy passing at the Chi Omega Sorority house on the University of Colorado campus.

Both Miss Kirk and Walker are seniors at the university majoring in education. Stewart is a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity.

Miss Kirk graduated from Acalanes High School in 1952. Walker formerly made his home in Pasadena, California.

Both Joyce and Stewart are returning home this week-end to spend the Easter vacation with their respective families. The couple plan to be married in June.

CHAIRMAN Del Murray Procter and Mrs. Julia Procter of 1064 Sunnybrook Drive, Lafayette, left, are explaining to Commander William X. Okker and Mrs. Okker of the Oakland Power Squadron some of the educational pamphlets and nautical equipment displayed at the San Francisco Boat Show. Three thousand boating enthusiasts took advantage of this invitation to learn more more about the USPS free classes on "Safety at Sea."

Mothers Laugh At Themselves And Each Other

Orinda Nursery School mothers who can still laugh at themselves and each other enjoyed some hilarious moments at their monthly meeting on a recent night when three of their group presented the play "Scattered Showers."

The one-act drama presented without stage properties was designed to dramatize some common but controversial aspects of the child-parent relationship with emphasis on the ever-present problem of discipline.

On stage three mothers, stars for the evening, Mesdames W. E. Estes, Harry Larsen, and Fred Braumoeller were seen "enjoying" an afternoon in the park accompanied by three imaginary children, pre-school age.

Each portrayed a distinct type of mother; the intelligent, educated, but slightly neurotic type who reads all the books and does what they say; the relaxed, permissive type with lots of older children; and then the good-natured but thoughtless type displaying little control of hostile feelings, who screams at her children while telling them not to scream.

Dramatically speaking, the screaming mother stole the show. However, mothers in the audience were given an opportunity to evaluate and judge the best combination of parental attitudes in a discussion following the performance.

The play "Scattered Showers" was written by Nora Stirling under the auspices of the National Association for Mental Health.

Hostesses in charge of refreshments for the evening's meeting were Mesdames John Rasmussen, chairman; Mel Arighi, Louis Lazaroff, Thomas S. Cullen, Richard Bottjer, and Donald Woodcock.

Mrs. Fenn Wilson, dance chairman announced that May 26, is the date chosen for the nursery school's annual Informal Dinner Dance at the Diablo Country Club.

Class in Folk Dance May Mean New Hobby For You

By RUTH McKIRAHAN

A folk dance class for beginners will start Monday, April 9, at Acalanes High School. The class will meet from 8 until 10 p.m. Glenn and Reva Ward will be the instructors.

Due to the fact that folk dancing has been removed from the adult education program by the state, it has become a tuition class under the county in the adult education program of Acalanes High School.

The tuition charge is based on the number of people enrolled in the class. The larger the enrollment, the smaller the fee. This means that the charge could be as low as $5 or less per couple for a semester.

FOLK DANCING is a wonderfully satisfying hobby.

Many people have the idea folk dancing is very strenuous. It is as strenuous or as active as you wish it to be.

At first you might have a few sore muscles, just as when you start gardening or any other activity that uses muscles. But you soon get over that.

Many of the dances are not as tiring as garden chores or household duties. If for some physical reason one deems a dance too much for him, he need not participate. Since the moderate dancers are in the majority, most students will be able to learn many fascinating dances.

SOME OF THE DANCES taught are very old, such as Miserlou a Greek dance, over 200 years old.

The majority of newer dances were composed after deep research ,and the steps are as authentic as are those of the older dances. You will learn polkas, schottisches, waltzes and tangoes and other types of dances too numerous to mention here.

Part of the evening will be devoted to square dancing, which is one of America's contributions to the long list of folk dances to be learned. Squares are called by both Glenn and Reva Ward.

THOSE INTERESTED in starting a new hobby, one in which both husband and wife can participate, may enroll immediately, although the class will not start until April 9.

Thus you will gain an idea as to the cost the first night you attend class. Registration is open Monday through Thursday nights at the office, Acalanes High School.

JayCees Assist Yuba Farmers

Representatives of the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce gave a "helping hand" recently to farmers in the Yuba City area.

Helping to clear debris in the form of lumber, branches and other misplaced household items from fruit and nut orchards, were Bob Hickey, George York and Bob Stephens. The trio told of their experience and the gratitude expressed by those helped at the Jaycee meeting at El Nido March 12.

At the March 12 meeting, the group also heard a discussion by James Morris on Investments. Morris of Lafayette and associated with a national brokerage firm, showed a color movie titled "How to Invest."

Other business at the meeting included a discussion concerning a "Candidates' Night" at which all candidates for county offices will speak.

This meeting scheduled for May, will be jointly sponsored by The Sun and the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Library Fund Drive Needs Full Support

There is not the slightest doubt that all Orindans agree that the Orinda Library fund drive, now being organized, is deserving of the wholehearted support of all of us.

Here is a project urgently needed, and the need presents us with the opportunity to do something right at home, for our own community.

Under the general chairmanship of Perc S. Brown, the campaign for funds with which to build a much-needed new library building for Orinda will be a house-to-house campaign. Details are now being worked out.

Inadequacy of the present library quarters, in the basement of the Orinda Community Church, has long been realized. The Orinda Association has promised the Orinda Library Board a site on Orinda Community Center land, at Orinda Highway and Irwin Way, for a new library building.

However, the local community must provide the building and equipment. The county furnishes the books and personnel.

Need for a new library building is eloquently emphasized by the following figures, cited by Mrs. Bertha Hellum, county librarian:

1. In a 10-year period, circulation of books at the Orinda Library increased 912 per cent — from 3732 volumes in the 1944-45 fiscal year to 37,770 volumes in 1954-55.

2. Borrowers increased 175 per cent during the same period — from 474 to 1307. (Mrs. Hellum points out that one person in a family often takes out books for three or four others in the family.)

3. Shelving capacity at the present quarters is sufficient for 2142 books. Checked out to the Orinda Library by the County Library in Martinez are 6099 books.

"If all persons who had books out would return them to the Orinda Library at the same time, there would be room for only a little over one-third of the books," Mrs. Hellum points out.

"Orinda should have a library with capacity for 18,000 books."

According to Mrs. Sara Malinowsky, Orinda librarian, and Mrs. Sabine O'Flaherty, her assistant, there are frequent times when people have to wait outside the door of the present small quarters, before they can take out books.

Furthermore, additional hardship is sometimes caused during rainy weather — soaked floors in the reference book, adult non-fiction and adult fiction sections.

All of which adds up to one key message: Give generously to the Orinda Library fund drive!

Red Cross Drive Captains Named

Commnuity chairmen and captains for the Orinda Red Cross drive were announced recently by Mrs. Richard T. Myer, Orinda, area chairman.

Mrs. J. R. Longacre Jr. will command Southwest Orinda; Mrs. C. V. Scarich, Northwest Orinda; Mrs. D. J. O'Connor, Northeast Orinda; Mrs. Calvin Hagstrom, Southeast Orinda, as community chairmen.

A warning was sent out to residents by Mrs. Myer reminding them to be cautious of strangers collecting in the name of the Red Cross. In most cases the door-to-door volunteer will live in the same street area.

ORINDA'S GOAL in the drive is $7000. As of last Friday $1,666.22 was turned in.

Probability that two-thirds of the quota will have been turned in by today was anticipated this week by Mrs. Myer.

Area captains are:

SOUTHWEST: Lincoln Estates, Mrs. Standish Massie; Moraga Del Rey Unit 1, Mrs. G. E. Cooke; Moraga Del Rey Unit 2, Mrs. Thomas Kallam; Lost Valley and Valley View, Mrs. Robert Anzell; Moraga Woodlands, Mrs. W. F. Baird Jr.; Moraga Nursery, Mrs. B. A. Olsen Jr.; Camino Encinas, Mrs. William Seifert; Oak Springs, Mrs. John Upp; Moraga Highway, Mrs. James Allen.

NORTHWEST: Orinda Highway, Mrs. M. S. Lowman; Monte Vista, Mrs. Victor Colburn; Ardilla Road, Mrs. Howard Prather; Orinda Oaks, Mrs. Joseph Eldridge; Lower El Toyonal, Mrs. Jack Behr; Upper El Toyonal, Mrs. Conway Smith Jr.; Los Amigos, Orinda Highway, Mr.s Hugh Rieger; Orinda Village shopping area, Mrs. Betty Jane Pearson.

SOUTHEAST: Mesdames Jack Gregory, F. D. Tobias, Robert Miller, W. E. Christiansen and David H. Lewis. Four more captains are still to be selected for the southeast area.

Under each captain there will be 10-12 volunteer workers who will collect for the Red Cross fund raising campaign.

Letters to The Editor

LAND USE

Dear Editor:

The controversy over the proposed rezoning of the Bruzzone-Ghiglione property along Moraga Road from School Street to St. Mary's Road has been raging for nearly a year.

On this one piece of property they now have application for commercial, multiple family and a land use permit for a medical-dental building.

Last year a detailed proposed master plan for Lafayette was prepared by the Contra Costa County Planning Department.

On this plan the Bruzzone-Ghiglione property along Moraga Road was zoned from one-half acre to one-quarter acre single family. Before too long the Town Hall will be relocated, so the buffer zone was established by the school.

At the Lafayette master plan hearing in Martinez, the Lafayette Improvement Association went on record as approving one-quarter acre single family in this area.

Why should this hassel continue? Ninety-eight per cent of the people in this area signed petitions protesting any change from single family density.

Why should this piece of property take up so much time of the Lafayette Improvement Association?

I'll tell you why! !

Russell Bruzzone is on the Board of Directors of the Lafayette Improvement Association and continues to press for something other than single family.

Not everyone wants to live off the beaten path on a half acre. Many people prefer a nice home within walking distance of schools and shops. The area along Moraga Road from School Street to St. Mary's Road is about the only property left that meets these requirements. Builders agree that it is a desirable area for nice homes.

The Lafayette Improvement Association can settle this as the people wish by keeping the single family zoning as proposed in the original master plan for Lafayette instead of submitting to the selfish interests of a few.

Mrs. M. P. Superak.

COVERAGE

Dear Editor,

Allow me to congratulate your papers for the excellent coverage given the recent Democratic pre-primary convention held in Martinez.

Voters can always expect a full and fair coverage for both major political party's candidates in this area from The Sun newspapers.

Your papers have never engaged in becoming a party to smear techniques even when this was the mood only recently.

As the June elections approach and your sponsorship of candidates night in May approaches, it is a pleasure to see, as it was observed in past elections, equal space given to each candidate.

This letter also affords me the opportunity of congratulating you again for receiving a first place plaque for community service from the California Newspaper Publishers Association.

Sincerely,
TOM KENDALL,
member of the Democratic County Central Committee, and the Central Contra Costa Democrats.

RESTLESS KIDS

It's natural for youngsters to get restless when they're riding in a car on a long trip. Stop every once in awhile and let them romp for a minute. It will make them feel better and speed the trip for everyone.

Red Cross Fund Drive Lagging In Most Areas

The first two weeks of the Red Cross annual drive for members and funds has reached $10,472 which represents 36 per cent of the goal, it was announced today.

Ygnacio Valley, Diablo, Danville and San Ramon have gone well over their quotas and fund officials hope that the drive will gain momentum this week in areas that are lagging.

Here are the amounts received for each area, followed by the area quota in parenthesis.

Ygnacio Valley, $489 ($350); Sun Valley, $294 ($600); Alamo, $400 ($1200); Lafayette, $1983 ($7000); Orinda, $1680 ($7000); Pleasant Hill, $294 ($1000); Walnut Creek, $614 ($7500).

What They Say

Is Our Area OK for All?

It is often said that this is the best area in which to raise children, but how is this area for persons well past childhood?

In order to determine if the area is as good for middle-aged and older persons, The Sun's roving reporter asked this question:

"This is an ideal area to bring up children; do you think that this area is equally attractive, healthful and convenient for middle-aged and older residents?"

W. Dickson Reed Jr., 928 Janet Lane, Lafayette, answered, "No, I don't think that the area is as good for middle-aged and older persons. I do think that it is wonderful for children, though."

Mrs. V. W. Peabody Jr., Hidden Valley, Lafayette, said "The climate is wonderful and the area is very restful. Shopping facilities are close in so I think it's good for the older people as well as the kids."

Mrs. Dan Popovitch, 118 Hillcrest Drive, Orinda, stated "It all depends on your personal interests. We have to go a long way for cultural events but if you're the outdoor type it's just fine."

Mrs. Roger C. Olson, 148 Camino Sobrante, Orinda, answered "I feel that this area is nice for everybody young or old. Anyone who likes country living over city living should like it here."

Mrs. Thomas Vickers of 22 Richie Drive, Pleasant Hill, said, "A lot depends on what the older person likes to do. There might be formed some clubs for those who are interested. But I guess that I know more about children, than oldsters."

Lawrence Peterson of 2364 Warren Road, Walnut Creeks says yes.

"But there is the transportation problem. If they don't own, and have a license to drive a car, how are they to get to a store? Public transportation, of course, is a big problem everywhere."

This is an ideal for older folks, especially due to the climate, ventured Mrs. W. A. DeProse of 281 Creston Road, Walnut Creek.

"In a way, we ourselves, have sort of 'retired' 30 years early by moving here from Canada," she laughed. Mrs. DeProse is a sales manager in Oakland.

"Close association is often wanted by older people, at least now and then. In that, the friendliness and neighborliness in Pleasant Hill is helpful," declared H. S. Middaugh of 165 Pleasant View Drive, Pleasant Hill.

But in some cases the size of the lots available may be too large for an elderly couple to keep up.

A weird story of justice

An amazing story of Justice in Contra Costa County was demonstrated last week. And it has caused a lot of buzzing in newspaper, attorney and other circles. Here's the weird story, as pieced together from news accounts:

A Vallejo doctor, Constantine V. Jantzen, was arrested February 24 when his car collided with another on San Pablo Avenue at Richmond. Police said the doctor drove away from the accident scene, fought with the other driver when pursued and battled officers trying to place him under arrest. He tore the shirts of two policemen and also fought in the jail.

He was arrested and charged with 1) drunk driving, 2) reckless driving, 3) hit-run driving and 4) resisting arrest. The doctor then retained the powerful, influential law firm of Carlson, Gordon and Bold of Richmond.

Order in the court?

The case went to court March 14. But the doctor did not face the original charges. They were dismissed on the motion of Deputy District Attorney Charles Wright.

The doctor pleaded guilty. But take a look at the reduced charges: disturbing the peace and being drunk. He was fined $100 by Municipal County Judge Leo Marcollo, placed on six months probation and ordered to pay for repairs to a damaged police uniform and repairs to another automobile involved in a collision.

Enterprising newsmen from the Richmond Independent and S.F. Examiner started asking questions. Judge Marcollo said, "This was a subrosa deal, don't embarrass us up here."

Then, a nosey reporter went directly to a key man: Tom Carlson, the genial head of the defendant's law firm, and the power-behind-the-throne in many county matters. Carlson said:

"I was hired by a client and I did a job for a client."

Normal procedure?

Assistant District Attorney Cliff Anglim said that the reduction in the charges was "a normal procedure."

"If the complainants do not wish to press charges we reduce those charges. That is a normal procedure," Anglim said. "Why should we waste the taxpayer's money if the complaining witness doesn't want to press charges."

This is such an amazing statement that it needs no additional comment.

Incidentally, the quotes I'm using are from the Richmond Independent, although I checked the facts with other sources.

This handling of justice can be laid at the door step of our County District Attorney — Francis Collins. It is his responsibility. What do you say, Mr. Collins?

Local Artists Now in Action

Sunny skies and warm weather are bringing out the yearly contingent of artists to paint scenes of the St. Mary's College Campus, it was reported. First of the season were Hiram P. Meulendyke of 1750 Orchard Lane, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. D. D. Johnson of 3632 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette. Both were engrossed with Spanish California architecture of the college chapel, which is of perennial interest to arstists.

About Our Happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

Dream boats on the spring scene

1) How to look glamorous with a cold in the head—verr-ee simple—just cuddle your white mink stole around alabaster shoulders—steer your Dresdtn features toward the balcony spotlight and let your china blue eyes sparkle with reflection—grasp the podium solidly with both hands and whisper confidently into the amplifier so that your laryngitisish voice will be carried to all corners of the Fairmont Hotel banquet room.

IN SUCH fashion the Honorable Claire Booth Luce completely captured her audience at a dinner given for Italian President Gronchi—particularly when she said she had lost her heart long ago to San Francisco, now she had lost her voice to San Francisco and she supposed the next thing, she would lose her head to San Francisco.

Then she cemented Italian-American friendship in a thorough maner and mentioned that this way, in no way a reflection of the previous talk which had explaied one of America's contribution to Italy—the introduction of hybrid corn.

A remarkable lady with steel trap wit and the face of a blonde angel.

Local glamour

2) A local glamour puss with sparkling eyes (big brown ones on this charmer) Judy Dunn who let some of her school chums know of her engagement to Harvey Lothian Saturday last at a Country Club luncheon.

Judy was indeed a dream boat wearing tissue taffeta in shades of blue and violet and a white orchid—center left. She is a Delta Gamma at the University of Oregon and home for Easter vacation.

3) A Lafayette dream boat greeted her guests in taffeta, too—gay stripes in warm rose shades—Mrs. Fred Seulberger who with Mr. S. cocktailed their friends on Sunday last. And speaking of Seulbergers here comes the fourth dream—delightful Janey who so ably introduced Mrs. Oliver at the recent Daphne fashion show at the Willows.

Walnut Creek beauty

5) A Walnut Creek beauty—a personality boy in sheer white embroidered linen, was guest of honor at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Forni for a post-christening luncheon on Sunday too.

Instead of yowling or falling asleep (customary for gentlemen of that age) he gurgled and cooed and ended up by sitting on all the ladies' laps.

6) Lady with Spring hat—the new inverted bowl shape in white straw, a fascinating foil for large kitten eyes—hit town last week ostensibly for the purpose of hearing Mrs. Vallely's last lecture of the season.

While here she certainly sold all of us a bill of goods—Mrs. Frank Harry Smith bubbling wtih enthuasm about the forthcoming Japanese Centennial Festival of Culture sponsored by the Oakland Art Museum.

We finally gathered that anyone who misses this "Bunka Sai" is "either too young or too old" for some of the following enjoyable displays—modern and ancient art treasures—a complete traditional landscaped farmhouse (more on this one later), a fashion show of Japanese and American fabrics and designs, and a precious exhibit of children's toys along with a music festival and display of decorative accents for your own home.

At the moment the following local ladies are busily sending invitations under the guidance of Mrs. Chauncey Pond.

Mesdames Karl Paulding, Thomas McGuire, Raymond Tolles, Harry Van Dutton, Carl Dailey, Frank Malley and Paul Athanson.

The hunters are out

7) Lady with African hunter's hat and elephant gun—Mrs. Ray Meyers of Orinda showing pictures of her recent safari.

Among other things she explained that a "stooge" is not only the straight man in a vaudeville team—he is the fella who covers you with a gun while you go out front to take a pot shot at the irked lion. We suggest you be mighty good to your stooge.

SO—SPRING is here and some of the warm burgeoning flow of strength coursing into local trees and bushes seems to have gotten sidetracked into our writing hand so you might hear from us again soon—but for now

THAT IS ALL.

Meet the Jewetts who set up housekeeping in Eureka in 1936
20 YEARS AGO—when Fred and Mary Jewett were married, they had just 7 appliances: range, waffle iron, water heater, iron, toaster, radio, clock.
TODAY—their inviting home has 25 appliances, including: range, refrigerator, washer and dryer, toaster, coffee maker, waffle iron, 2 clothes irons, corn popper, mixer, vacuum cleaner, vacuum broom, television, radio-phonograph, 2 radios, 3 clocks, infra-red lamp, sewing machine, power saw, water heater and furnace.

Today they buy $22 worth of gas and electricity for $13
...for the average unit price is far less today than it was in 1936
Surprised at all the appliances the Jewetts have bought since they were married? Then count up all the appliances you've added through the years... and chances are you'll find your own story is pretty much the same. In fact, if you're like the average California family, you're using three times as much gas and electricity today as twenty years ago. Naturally, all this extra gas and electricity is bound to increase your bill. But it's far lower than it would have been twenty years back. That's because P. G. and E. now charges far less per unit, on the average, than it did in 1936. Take the Jewetts: a month or so ago their bill came to only $13.23. Twenty years ago the same amount of gas and electricity would have cost them $22.35! You're probably making similar savings yourself.
Can you think of anything else in your budget that actually costs you far less today than it did twenty years ago? No wonder we say...

Gas and Electricity are cheap in California!

In the Community Methodist Church of Jackson, February 19, more than 300 guests witnessed the double-ring nuptial rites read by the Rev. Charles Winter that united Miss Allene Joan Raggio of Jackson and Ens. Robert Emil Wickman of Orinda.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Joseph Raggio, the bride appeared in a floor-length gown of antique ivory silk taffeta and chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was styled with off-the-shoulder straps and a scoop neckline trimmed with irridescent sequins.

She slipped a 68-year-old sixpence in her shoe and carried her mother's wedding handkerchief.

Miss Sara Lu Raggio served as her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Mary Bokinsky of Pittsburg and Miss Durfey Parkins of Watsonville, both college classmates of the bride. All wore red taffeta frocks with matching tulle headdresses and carried bouquets of peppermint stick carnations.

Boyd Wickman of Orinda served as best man for his brother and ushers were Ron Forsstrom of Berkeley and Ens. James Hall.

The new Mrs. Wickman graduated from the Jackson schools and from the University of California.

Those attending from Orinda were: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Drews, Mrs. Hanna Teiche, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dawson, Phil Dawson, Dick Laney and the Dr. Ralph Hall family. Mrs. Hall assisted in serving the wedding cake.

Acalanes Nine Beats San Ramon By 15-6 Count

The Acalanes Dons rapped the San Ramon nine in a baseball game at the Acalanes diamond last Friday afternoon when they posted 15 runs to 6.

The Dons used four pitchers in notching the win. Martin Schaeffer threw the first two innings, Ronnie Nelson the third and fourth, Steve Jordan did the hurling in the fifth and sixth frames, with Mike Barrett winding up the seventh.

The Dons took a 1-0 first inning lead, and it was 3-1 at the end of the second inning of play.

IN THE TOP of the third San Ramon scored a pair, to knot the count at 3-all, only to have Acalanes forge ahead with a 5-run splurge in the bottom of the fourth.

Jim Dinkel, pinch-hitting in the fourth with a bases-loaded situation, went to a 2-2 count before finding one to his liking, and he hit a grand-slam home run. Gordon Napolitanto tripled and came home for run number 5 in the inning.

The Dons came back with 5 more tallies, and then 2 more, while San Ramon accounted for 3 runs in the sixth it wasn't enough, and the Dons racked up the 15-6 win.

IN THE HIT department it was closer, with the Dons having 8 safe blows to San Ramon's 6.

In errors the losers led 5-2.

Steve Jordan led the stickers with 3 for 5.

Dons Drop Agate Tilt to Diablo In Pitchers Duel

The Acalanes Dons travelled to Concord Tuesday afternoon for the baseball league opener and when the seven innings of play had passd found themselves on the short end of a 2-0 count.

The battle was a pitcher's duel all the way with base hits few and far between and only one extra base blow.

Mike Barrett, the Dons' southpaw ace, gave a run up in the second frame when Ray Creuna hit a triple to right field and scored when Walsh followed with a single.

The other tally came in the 6th when leadoff batter Pargament took first when the Dons' shortstop, Don Babcock, misjudged a ground ball. He was bunted to second on a sacrifice and went to third on a fielders choice.

The score came when a ground ball to Markstein at third was thrown wide of the plate in an attempted pickoff. That ended the scoring.

Two of the Dons' three blows were sharp hit singles off the bat of Gordon Napolitano who ended up with 2 for 3.

Diablo collected 5 safe blows.

Diablo Wins 3-Way Meet

In a three-way meet at Concord last Friday afternoon the Diablo Devils came out on top when they scored victories in the varsity and Bee track divisions, to down Las Lomas and Pleasant Hill.

In the varsity meet, Diablo was well out in front, scoring 82¼ points, while Las Lomas had 35¼ and the Pleasant Hill Rams had 21½.

In the Bee meet, it was pretty much the same story, with Diablo having 84, Las Lomas 35 and Pleasant Hill 18.

In the varsity meet, Diablo took all but four firsts, with those going to Las Lomas.

Bob Karlsrud was the big point-getter for the Las Lomas team, taking the 120-yard high hurdles in 15.5 and the 180-yard lows in 20.4.

Webb Johnson heaved the discus 115 feet, 5 inches, to cop first for the Knights in the event, while Gary Wingett ran to a first in the 440 with a :53.3 timing.

Don Thinclads Split Meet With Encinal Tracksters

The Acalanes varsity track and Bee teams traveled to Alameda last Friday afternoon and while the Bees won the varsity had their troubles.

In the Bee meet it was Acalanes 68½-Encinal 44½.

In the varsity division the Dons trailed 72-41.

The Encinal Jets had too much. The Dons managed to cop but three firsts.

Larry Pilcher took the measure of the field in the 440 yard run when he scampered home the winner in a good time of :50.9.

Rick Davis busted the tape a winner in the 220 yard dash, stopping the clocks at :23.4.

In the pole vault it was a two way tie at 10 feet between the Dons' Kent Grigg and Tom Ferguson.

In the Bee meet Stu Fox copped a pair of wins taking the 70 yard high hurdles in 10.6 and repeating in the 120 yard lows at 14.8.

The Don Babes scored a clean sweep in the 1320 yard run with Fred Morris hitting the finish line in 3:36.7.

Bll Hards topped the high jumpers at 5'3" while Leroy Schmitt tossed the iron ball 46'1¼" to take the event.

Larry Tessler was a winner in the broad jump when he sailed 18'4¾".

Mike Latone rounded out the Bee winners for Acalanes when he hit an even 10' in the pole vault.

Pleasant Hill Rams Rack Pirates, 6-3

6-Run Outburst In Fifth Puts Game on Ice

The Pleasant Hill Rams had their uneasy moment in the opening league baseball game at Pittsburg Tuesday but a 6-run outburst in the top of the fifth put them on Easy Street and they went on to notch a 6-3 win.

Pittsburg's Pirates scored 2 in the third and added another in the fifth, but other than that, big Ray Johansen shut the gate and earned the win by hurling 4-hit ball.

The Rams had 5 hits and, along with them, 3 errors.

Pitt committed 2 miscues.

Johansen and Buckmann formed the winners' battery while for Pitt it was Gonzales and Smith, with both duos going all the way.

Racket Wielders Post Don Wins

The Acalanes tennis team posted its initial league win Tuesday afternoon when they measured Diablo 4-1.

Ron Loveridge of Diablo defeated John Hull of Acalanes 7-5, 7-5 but from there on in it was the Dons.

Len Saputa (A) defeated Charles Clark (D) 4-6, 6-2, 6-1, while Bob Stenben (A) trimmed Diablo's Ed Ruff 6-1, 6-3.

Doug Krotz (A) defeated Gary Mitten (D) 6-3, 6-3.

The doubles matches were called with the Dons out in front due to time.

SPORTS

Sideline Slants

Prep Team Chances Shown By Opening Spring Events

By ERWIN MATTSON

THE OPENING SPRING events have thrown a lot of light on the prep league teams in the various spring sport.

Acalanes, off the Diablo Valley Athletic League Relays, still appears to be tops in the aquatic sport, with Diablo the big opposition in the varsity divisions, while in the Bees Las Lomas looms as the big threat to Don supremacy.

The only two schools not to take part were Antioch and Pittsburg. Rumor has it that Pittsburg High will soon have a school pool and will enter a team in the near future.

It would be a move in the right direction, as it gives a sport more impetus with more schools taking part. It's to be hoped that Anioch follows suit and makes competition a 100% deal.

In connection with swimming, George Harrison of Orinda looms as a strong contender for an Olympic games berth. George is a national champ in the 200-yard medley. Unfortunately, the event is not on the Olympic program, so George will have to make it in some other event or as a member of a relay team.

In event he should make it, and we will all be pulling for him, he will be the second one from Acalanes to be a member of the United States Olympic Swimming Team. Barbara Stark, who was only a high school sophomore at the time time, was in the last Olympics, held in Finland.

THE GYM at Pleasant Hill High is under way after being delayed by the heavy winter rains. The Pleasant Hill High School swimmers will probably be using the pool being built by the Recreation Department. It will be a big help, as at present they must hold workouts at Las Lomas.

In connection with other spring sports, the Dons, who have been usual pennant contenders, appear to be down this year.

Las Lomas, Pleasant Hill and Diablo all appear strong, and it's a tossup as to the pennant winners.

In golf all clubs are in the experimentation stage, and this race is a wide-open one.

In track the power looks to lie between Diablo and Pittsburg in the varsity division, with Las Lomas and the Acalanes Dons fighting it out for third. In the Bees it's a three-cornered race by Diablo, Acalanes and Pittsburg. Chances are the picture won't change much between now and league meet time.

BASEBALL, like last year, is a wide-open race. The Dons dropped three and copped the pennant last year.

Antioch, Diablo, Acalanes and Pleasant Hill look to be top contenders on paper and on practice cards. Las Lomas looks better each time out, while Pacifica lacks experience.

Part of the story will be told by the time this goes to press, as Acalanes crossed bats with Diablo Tuesday, and Antioch and Pittsburg tangled while Las Lomas faced Pleasant Hill on the same afternoon.

Baseball players of the area have been given a break by the San Francisco Seals, who since the Oaks' departure to Vancouver, are the Bay Area's lone Pacific Coast League representative.

Walter Mails, public relations man for the Seals, has extended an invitation to teams to attend a game as a group on a gratis basis. It's a mighty fine gesture and one certain to be taken advantage of by various teams in the area.

Printmakers Display at Art Center

Now on exhibit at the Valley Art Center, 3420 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, is a display of the Bay Printmakers Society.

A preview was held March 8. The show will be open to the public through April 6 during the hours, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., Tuesdays through Fridays.

The collection of prize-winning etchngs, lithographs, serigraphs and woodcuts was hung by Mrs. Pat St. John Moran, of Walnut Creek, exhibit chairman for the Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Falch of Corte Madera, were among the guests on opening night. Mrs. Falch is a well-known expert in the art of handweaving.

Among other guests seen at the preview were Dr. and Mrs. John Ellis and Messrs. and Mesdames E. M. Jacobson, Donald Holmes, John Brackenbury, all of Lafayeette; Stanley Kwiat anad Michael Czaja, Walnut Creek; James Irwin, Concord, and Robert Holmes of Orinda.

Drive carefully—save a life.

Revenge Scored Over Livermore By Dons, 9-1

The Acalanes Dons lost to the Livermore Cowboys in a 9-5 baseball game at Livermore March 13 but gained revenge March 15 when, at Acalanes, they combined good pitching with good hitting to notch a 9-1 win of their own.

The good pitching came from Mike Barrett, diminutive portsider who gave up but one hit in the first and one in the second.

Two errors in the seventh kept Barrett from a shutout.

On the other side of the ledged, the Dons' bats rapped out 8 hits to account for 9 runs.

THREE OF THE safe blows came in the opening frame, and with them came 5 runs. An error and a base on balls aided the Don cause.

In the second inning, with one away, the Dons' catcher, Dave Bojarsky, doubled, and Don Babcock singled to put two on.

Jim Dinkel, hitting from the port side, smashed a trip to right center, scoring both, and came in himself when Gordon Napolitanto, also left-handed, rapped one to the same spot for a home run.

That accounted for 4 runs and made the count 9-0, in favor of the Dons, and that's the way it stayed until the seventh, when the visitors scored their lone run.

It came about when Livermore's first baseman, Dick Varney, was on first via an error.

THERE WAS ONE away at the time, and Mike Barrett was on the mound for the Dons.

The next batter went down via the strikeout route, with Varney going to second on a steal and coming home with the tally when a pop-up fly by Frank Ferriaro was dropped.

The next would-be hitter was out, second to first, and that ended the ball game.

In the error department the Dons out-bobbled the visitors, 3-2.

Volunteer Group Recruits 21 New Members

The Volunteer Bureau of the Walnut Creek area completed a month's drive for additional workers with good results, according to Mrs. Joseph Wilson, chairman.

Due to greatly increased demands on the Bureau by health, welfare and private agencies throughout the Diablo Valley, the Bureau found its reserve of volunteers sorely inadequate, she said. Consequently, the local bureau joined with the bureaus of San Francisco and Oakland in a joint campaign to enroll more volunteers for the community service jobs to be filled in this area.

She added that over 21 people have been registered since the beginning of the drive a month ago. More are needed.

A good deal of the interest generated throughout Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill was due to the excellent cooperation of the newspapers, she stated.

"We are most anxious that everyone knows that the Volunteer Bureau exists, and where it is, and what we are accomplishing. We have filled over five hundred requests during the last year and we hope to be able to give assistance to many more agencies in the future.

"Our continued success depends on the public spirited in the Diablo Valley. Anyone who has a few hours to give toward helping someone else is urged to call the Bureau at their office at 1640 Main Street, YE 4-0424 any week day morning from nine to twelve."

Batter Up! Official Play To Follow Youth Training

By MEL ALAMANO

Last Saturday found hundreds of boys getting in spring training for the Recreation Department Baseball Leagues.

In the morning session all the young fellows 8½ years through 10 years were put through a beginners clinic and Gord McNulty and his hard-working coaching group tried to get the development of the teams on a solid basis.

There seems to be an over supply of boys in this catagory, which is fine. But any boy who hails from Pleasant Hill is advised to contact his Rec. Department for information on summer league play there.

THE PROBLEMS of available playing area are arising, and Walnut Creek cannot handle all areas financially or space-wise. There will be a further announcement on this later.

Pleasant Hill will no doubt have a boy's league also.

Any boy who has not signed from the Walnut Creek area, and is interested should do so very soon before teams are formed.

There will be a deadline for signing up in the 11 year through 13 year National League group any day now.

A boy must attend the clinic before being placed on a team.

Some pitchers and catchers were assigned to certain managers last Saturday. This week infielders will be assigned to team managers and then, if time allows, outfielders will be separated.

THE COMMISSIONER and coaches are trying to even off teams as best they can. Some dads have offered to help out the city park infield in shape, and if the weather permits Sunday morning, work will begin.

The registration fee of $2 will be paid to the league after teams are organized, so hold on fellows, till its announced.

A few interested dads for the National League team managers are needed, so please contact Sports and Games Inc. at YE 5-1017 at once, or be at the park Saturday at 12:30 p.m.

The Coast League for 8½ through 10 years old, will meet at 10 a.m., and the older boys at the usual 12:30 p.m.

THE BEHAVIOR of the youths has been fine, and everyone is anxious to get things going.

The Rec Department is cooperating through Bob Maxey, sports supervisors, to make this program a success.

Pete Corona, Walnut Creek school teacher and coach, has taken over some of the boys on Saturdays, and he is a big help to all of us.

Pete was regarded as a fine pro prospect, and the Cleveland Indians had him signed up. But injuries and the attraction of teaching and helping kids changed his plans.

Glad to have you, Pete Corona!

There will be no practice March 31 due to Easter vacation, and also the Easter Egg hunt at the park that day.

SPONSORS ARE still needed so please call the Rec. Department and Mrs. Wallis or Bob Maxey will give you all the details!

This writer made a trip down the San Francisco peninsula this week, and they have a fine program going in all the suburban towns.

All over the state, youth baseball is gaining momentum. Purpose of the Rec. Department leaders is to allow all boys who so desire to play.

But remember, its mostly for fun, and not to see how badly you can beat the other team! Play to win, but if you lose, be a good sport!

Quotas Released By Cancer Fund Drive Committee

Local quotas for the 1956 Cancer Campaign to start April 2, in Contra Costa County were released today by E. E. Matheson, Concord, treasurer, Contra Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society.

In Diablo Valley, the following goals were set by the campaign committee: Walnut Creek, $12,800; Lafayette, $6,200; Orinda, $5,000; the Danville area, including Diablo, San Ramon, Alamo and Tassajara, $3,500. The Concord area, which includes Cowell, Pacheco and Pleasant Hill accepted a goal of $21,119.

According to Matheson, areas expect to raise this amount in a residential campaign by special gifts, and campaigns in business, industry, organizations and clubs.

Funds collected will be used to finance nationwide programs of cancer research, education and service, Matheson said. Forty per cent of all money raised in local areas will remain in Contra Costa County for use in cancer control work.

Pointing out the importance of the life saving efforts the Cancer Society, Matheson stated, "During the past two decades the national death rate from cancer has risen steadily. Cancer accounted for 147 deaths per 100,000 population in 1954, as against 106 per 100,000 in 1934. If every case of cancer were detected and treated early enough, the death rate from the disease could be pushed back roughly to where it was 20 years ago."

Recent appointments to the campaign committees include: Mesdames John V. Verhelst, R. H. Goodale, Chris Zacker, John J. Prentice, Alice Miller and Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clucas, Lafayette; Mrs. Leo MacFarlane, Walnut Creek; Messrs. and Mesdames Lester Hink Jr., N. S. Dodge Jr., Ritchie C. Smith, Joe Downs, Robert Jurs, Marshall Shapiro, Robert H. Bolman, Anthony Cianciarulo, Edward J. Turk, Edward G. Shuey and Howard Kisner, Orinda.

The Las Lomas Knights came through with some timely hitting and top hurling last Friday afternoon, to topple the John Swett Indians of Crockett, 9-2 in a baseball game at Walnut Creek.

Scoring 3 runs in the first and another 3 in the second, the Knights hopped to a secure 6-0 lead.

THE SWETT nine picked up a pair of runs in the top of the fourth frame, only to have the Knights add another run in their turn at bat and 2 more in the sixth.

Little Dick Stanley, who went all the way, shut the visitors out the rest of the way, to notch the win, 9-2.

TOP HITTER for the Las Lomas club was Doug Potter, who had two hits in three trips to the plate.

Stanley went the route for the winners, giving up 6 hits, while the Knights had 10.

In the error column, it was John Swett 4, Las Lomas 1.

PROTECT THE WINDSHIELD

When garaging the car, after driving in the rain, be sure to turn off the windshield wipers if they are running when the engine is switched off. The reason is to prevent the wiper blades from sweeping across a dry, dirty windshiel when the engine is started again, and thus scratching the glass.

Knights Tie With Antioch In 7-7 Game

The Las Lomas Knights and the Antioch Panthers opened league baseball play Tuesday afternoon at Walnut Creek and wound up in a 7-7 tie called due to darkness.

Antioch took a 4-run lead in the opening inning, with Las Lomas coming back with one in the first and 4 in the second, to make it 5-4.

ANTIOCH forged ahead in the fifth, 6-5, on a pair of runs and added another tally in the sixth, only to have the Knights tie the count at 7-all when they scored two in the bottom of the sixth.

Neither club scored in the seventh, and the game was called due to darkness.

JOE SIBLEY went the route for the Knights on the mound, with Howell behind the plate.

Antioch used three pitchers. Rebstock started and was relieved by Lawrence in the second. Rebstock came back in the third and lasted until the seventh, when Schutte took over.

West did the duty behind the plate.

Las Lomas was away ahead in the hit department, 11-4, and had 4 errors to Antioch's 3.

The "Be a Better Businessman" course which covers management control, financing, cost accounting, contract law, purchasing, estimating, market analysis, scheduling, supervision and income taxation will be given from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the three days at 3462 Mt. Development Of Highway 21 Is Predicted

Congressman John Baldwin of the Sixth District, in an open letter this week said in part:

Our Roads Subcommittee held meetings on amendments to the proposed expanded Federal Interstate Highway Bill. We finally completed the bill on Thursday afternoon.

This bill will authorize the most gigantic highway program in the history of this country. It authorizes the expenditure of $10.6 billion of Federal funds on the primary highway system, secondary highway system, and urban extensions of these systems, over a 13 year period to be matched by the states on a 50-50 basis.

Highway 40 over the Sierras, will become a four-lane road within that period.

Highway 21, running from Vallejo through Benicia, across the planned Benicia-Martinez Bridge, and southerly through Pacheco, Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek, Alamo, Danville and San Ramon to Dublin, will become a four-lane highway during the same period,

Dons Will Give Operetta Tonight

A cast of more than 100 Acalanes students will present "Rio Rita," popular Broadway musical of the late 1920's, in the Don gym, 8 o'clock tonight. Opening performance of the annual student operetta was given last night.

The production features the Acalanes concert band, mixed chorus and Val Geissler, Don Babcock, Kirk Barnette, Andrea Everett, David Pitkin, Edward Butler, William Ward, Gary Williamson, Jo Anne Musante, Beth Johnson, Marlow Boyd, Stephen Syverud, Allen Antons, Janice Guldenzopf and Morgan Jellet in singing roles.

The general pubic is invited. Tickets at $1 for adults and 75 cents for students will be sold at the door.

The production is under the general direction of Richard Hansen, Acalanes music instructor.

Dramateurs' Point of No Return' Will Open Tonight

At 8:30 tonight the Dramateurs will present Paul Osborn's "Point of No Return" at the Berkeley Little Theater, Allston Way and Grove Streets, Berkeley.

The production, which is under the direction of Carl Rasmussen, will be given again tomorrow night, next Friday night and on Saturday night, March 31, at 8:30 each night.

TICKETS, at $1.50 each, may be purchased from Dramateur members, Hinks Library in Berkeley or at the box office.

Special student tickets at 70 cents may also be purchased at the box office.

THE PLAY, based on the popular novel by J. P. Marquand, tells the story of a junior bank official who has bent himself toward creeping up the financial ladder until he is now within reach of the almost ultimate goal, a vice-presidency.

When he reaches this point he discovers that it isn't really what he wanted at all—but it is too late for him to do anything but go on; in the flier's phrase, he has reached the point of no return.

It is a cleverly made story which has a satisfying amount of praise of such cultural pursuits as book-reading and anthropology and an ending which is happy.
